"How Do I Look?"

How frequently a woman asks this question! How much thought and study she devotes to it! It is growing day by day less charming and attractive and youthful to her husband's eyes than in the days of courtship. A woman may always retain her charms and the vivacity and freshness of youth if she will take the proper care of her health. A tremendous percentage of ill-health in women is due to weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing remedy for all disorders of this nature. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, stops debilitating drains and soothes and tones the nerves. It preserves in a woman all the charm of healthy youth. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits.

"Favorite Prescription" is sold by all respectable dealers in medicines. Deal only where you are honestly treated. Any store-keeper who tries to give you a substitute for what you demand is not treating you honestly and you should take your trade elsewhere.

"For nine years I have suffered with falling of internal organs," writes Mrs. Mary Williams, of Raleigh, Wake Co., N. C. (Box 107). "I was troubled with bearing down pains, had indigestion and female weakness and nervousness. Could not sleep at night. I was constipated and had a trial of many remedies, but none of them did me any good. I was cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' have cured me."

An every-day necessity in the home. A good home medical work. Send 21 cent stamps, to cover mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., for a paper-covered copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Cloth binding 31 stamps.

On Landing Troops.

In landing a force on a hostile shore a great deal more has to be provided than the vessels to carry it. There are people who discuss an invasion, and who seem to have an idea that the matter is limited to crowding a number of soldiers on a ship and directing them to be landed at a certain place. There is no consideration of how they are to get on shore with their arms, guns and ammunition; that merchant ships have only a few boats, and that artillery cannot be transferred from ship to beach without any previous preparation. When we consider that, notwithstanding the support and resources of a large combined fleet and the presence of transports, more than a month of hard work was required before an army of 50,000 men could be landed in the Crimea, we are justified in doubting those who assert that the invasion of our shores with 150,000 or 200,000 men is not only within the bounds of possibility, but by no means so difficult an undertaking as is often stated. "Wilmet's Life of Vice Admiral Lord Lyons."

Financial View of It.

"John, dear," said the wife, "that last sonnet of yours will get me a pair of shoes, the love lyric will buy my hat, the quatrain will get my gloves and your obituary lines on old Jinks will enable us to rent a carriage and attend his funeral. How happy we ought to be!"—Atlantic Constitution.

Quite Evident.

"That boy of mine," remarked the proud parent extravagantly, "is the genuine article. He's all wool, you can bet."
"Shouldn't wonder," commented old Grumpy. "I notice that he shrinks from washing."—Philadelphia Record.

Diamonds may be black as well as white, and some are blue, red, yellow, green, pink and orange, but there is no violet diamond, although, in addition to amethysts, there are sapphires, rubies and garnets of that color.

A man endowed with great perfection without good breeding is like one who has his pockets full of gold, but always wants change for his ordinary occasions.—Steals.

A Faithful Friend.

When Sir Walter Scott was urged not to prop the falling credit of an acquaintance, he replied, "This man was my friend when friends were few, and I will be his now that his enemies are many."

Our Children.

"Pauline, what have you done with your doll?"
"Mother, I have lost it."
"Well, well!"
"Oh, but I know where it is! I lost it on purpose, to have the pleasure of finding it!"—Figaro

SUGAR BEET CULTIVATION.

So far as nature's resources and natural conditions are concerned, there is no reason why Nevada should not be the greatest sugar producer of any State in the Union. There are thousands upon thousands of acres of uncultivated and unoccupied land in the State which would produce larger crops of the beet root than is harvested in the most productive sections in California, or any other State where the vegetable is cultivated. Experiments in different parts of Nevada have proven this fact beyond the possibility of doubt. Not only larger in quantity, but a better quality of the root for sugar making, can be produced on land which is unfit for other agricultural purposes, as soil impregnated with a considerable amount of alkaline substance does not affect detrimentally the growth or quality of this particular vegetable. Analytical experiments show conclusively that the Nevada beet contains a considerably larger amount of saccharine substance than that grown in any other section of the country, and tests have been made from them all.

The JOURNAL is reliably informed that as high as four and five dollars per acre in rental is paid for land for beet raising purpose in California, where the product can be transported at small cost to the sugar manufacturing. Land equally good, if not better, can be purchased in Nevada at government price, and yet not an acre is utilized for that purpose, for the excellent reason that there is no manufactory in the State to create a market for the product.

With land to be had almost for the asking, of better quality and producing a better material for sugar making, does it not appear strange that the attention of capital has not been attracted to a section where nature has been so bountiful in her provisions for profitable investment in that kind of enterprise? The reason is a simple one and easily understood. Discrimination inimical to the State, in the matter of transportation of freight by the Southern Pacific railroad company is the sole cause. A Nevada manufactory could not successfully compete with those of other States when it would cost it nearly double the amount to get its commodity to market. It could not even supply the home demand for our 40,000 population, for the local freight charges would be greater than those for a "long haul" and consumers could get their sweetening stuff cheaper from the east or west than a home factory, from which it had to be transported by rail.

There is no use talking of establishing the beet sugar industry in Nevada, until the Southern Pacific releases its grasp upon our throats, or until a competing road comes to our rescue. With an equal show in the matter of transportation, in less than three years there would be a sugar manufactory established at half a dozen different points in the State, giving employment to a large number of men, and rendering productive and profitable thousands of our now uncultivated acres.

A "BACK NUMBER," INDEED?

The wish is father to the thought with those who profess to believe that Bryan is a back number. His name is on the tongues of more people in the United States to-day than ever before, not excepting those of Dewey and other heroes of the late war. He is most frequently mentioned by the press of all parties, and the pains taken to belittle him by the gold standard papers is sufficient evidence of the dread they entertain of his candidacy in 1900. Bryan is a man who wears well with the people and the more they see and hear of him the more they admire him. As a defeated candidate he holds intact the respect and admiration of his former supporters, while every day he is adding to his 6,510,000 list of political friends from the element which was deluded by false promises into the support of McKinley in 1896. The new issues which have arisen from the Spanish war he has met with promptness and decision, and his expressions and opinions have greater weight and influence with the people than the words and acts of the man who occupies the place to which he aspired, and who inaugurated and conducted the strife as the chief executive of the nation. By his efforts the financial question was kept on the surface and its voice was not for a moment drowned by the clashing of arms or the patriotic huzzas for the achievers of our glorious victories. He is the greatest moulder of public opinion in the country to-day, and the most prominent political figure of the nation, and will so remain during his generation whatever the results of future Presidential elections may be.

As a straw showing the estimation in which he is held, may be mentioned an incident at the opera house in Sacramento last Sunday night. A rapid sketch artist made faithful pictures of McKinley, Bryan and Dewey. The President was greeted with applause, the hero of Manila was cheered to the echo, but both demonstrations combined did not equal the one given to the champion of silver.

The Governor has appointed H. B. Maxon, Jim Yarrington and Assemblyman Dooley of Lincoln county, commissioners to the World's Fair at Paris.

HISTORY OF SENATE BILL NO. 76.

The Appeal of yesterday contains a long communication from Nate Roff, partly in relation to the gubernatorial veto of the Constitutional Convention bill. The greater part of the letter is disconnected with the veto matter, but the legislative history of the bill is given and the writer expresses his opinion that the Governor was justifiable in vetoing it. He does not, however, deny the main and only essential fact, that the bill passed both houses by constitutional majorities, but bases his justification upon the irregularity of the proceedings in passing it. The principal point appears to be that the bill was upon motion, "taken up out of order," instead of upon motion to reconsider. Mr. Roff exonerates the clerks from all blame, and justly so, as they should not be held responsible for the irregular proceedings in either of the houses. We can discern nothing, however, in such irregularity as would justify the Governor in disapproving the bill upon that ground, as the President of the Senate and Speaker of the Assembly certified that it had passed by constitutional majorities the houses over which they respectfully presided. Mr. Roff's statement concerning the proceedings is doubtless correct, but it sheds little, if any, new light upon the subject, and will cause, in our opinion, no change in the sentiments of the people concerning the reasons which led to such disastrous result.

THE Virginia Report expresses its gratification that the Governor has found a candidate in Sam Davis for a position which the Report declined—that of apologist for his excellency. But the Virginia paper spoils it all by impudently asking who is to apologize for Sam.

THESE are beautiful spring days—warm, balmy and beautiful. There is one thing, thank Providence, that neither gold-bugism, McKinley nor the Southern Pacific Company can deprive Nevada of—her delightful climate.

A Soldier's Blanket.

This story, told of Sir Ralph Abercrombie, the victor of Aboukir, shows that even in death he did not forget consideration for others. After the battle at which he was mortally wounded he was carried on board a ship, and a soldier's blanket was placed under his head to ease it. He felt the relief and asked what it was.

"Only a soldier's blanket," was the reply.
"Whose blanket is it?"
"Only one of the men's."
"I wish to know the name of the man."

"It is Duncan Roy's, of the Forty-second, Sir Ralph."
"Then see," said the dying general, "that Duncan Roy gets his blanket this very night."

He Might Have Married.

Fitz-Greene Halleck never married, yet, as Mr. Howe reminds us in his "American Bookman," he could not have been without attractions, for a certain superior lady is reported to have declared:

"If I were on my way to church to be married, yes, even if I were walking up the aisle, and Halleck were to offer himself, I'd leave the man I had promised to marry and take him."

To this, perhaps, should be joined his epigram, written for a young lady who had asked for his autograph:

There wanted but this drop to fill
The wifeless poet's cup of fame.
Hurrah! There lives a lady still
Willing to take his name.

A Xantippe Outwitted.

An Englishman of Lymington had the misfortune to live in a continuous quarrel with his wife, who was a modern Xantippe and threatened in case she survived him to dance over his grave. It was her lot to outlive him, but it was not so easy to carry out her threat. The husband had the precaution to make an injunction in his will requiring his body to be buried in the sea, near his residence, and without ceremony. The injunction was complied with.

ALFRED NELSON.

Old Resident Laid to Rest.

The funeral of S. T. Burtch took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Congregational church. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. F. V. Jones. Many people were assembled to hear the words which obtained of life, death and the hereafter. At the conclusion of the services the funeral train moved to the cemetery where the interment was made. Mr. Burtch was an old and respected citizen of Reno, where he had been engaged in the mercantile business for a number of years. He was an honest, upright man and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss, also two grandchildren, Mrs. J. J. Murray and Theron McAkill.

Grip's Ravages Doomed.

So much misery and so many deaths have been caused by the Grip, that every one should know what a wonderful remedy for this malady is found in Dr. King's New Discovery. That distressing stubborn cough, that inflames your throat, robs you of sleep, weakens your system and paves the way for consumption is quickly stopped by this matchless cure. If you have chills and fever, pain in the back of the head, soreness in bone and muscles, sore throat and that cough that grips your throat like a vice, you need Dr. King's New Discovery to cure your Grip, and prevent Pneumonia or Consumption.

Price 50 cents and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson's.

Beyond the Pulpit.

While on his way down town to mail some letters on the west bound passenger train a few nights ago, one of our worthy ministers was accosted by a man who roughly demanded 50 cents. "All right, come and get it," said the minister, putting his hand into his pocket. "I'll give you 50 cents and more if you say so," he continued looking very fierce for a preacher. The fellow gazed at him a minute in blank amazement, wheeled around and made off, calling back as he went, "Youse first gritty gospel shark I ever see. I don't want no 50 cents. Goodbye."

Will Meet the Team

Nevada's basket-ball team, which meted out defeat to the wearers of the cardinal last Monday, will be welcomed home this morning in a truly royal manner. A number of prominent citizens and business men have contributed money to be used in securing the presence of the Wheelmen's band at the depot when the train arrives. The cadet band will also be present to swell the melody. Arrangements have been made at the University to have waiting at the depot a decorated coach and four horses in which to carry the victorious team to the Girls Cottage.

The Coon Dance.

From indications the coon dance to be given on the 28th promises to be an enjoyable affair. It will be a positive requirement that all who participate in the dancing must be blacked up. The more grotesque and ridiculous the costumes worn the better will be the object of the dance be subserved. From interest shown it is a safe prediction that a large gathering in black will be in attendance.

A Gypsum Deposit.

Governor Adams is at the head of a company which owns the large deposit of gypsum at the Mound House, and it is quietly hinted that the company will commence work at once quarrying and shipping the stuff. Gypsum is used largely for fertilizing purposes on alkali soil and is a staple of commerce.—News.

Examination.

An examination was made yesterday in Justice Linn's court in the case on the part of the State charging Ira Packard with assault to do bodily injury on the person of one "Turk." Packard was allowed to go on his own recognizance while the Court has the case under advisement.

Horses Sold.

A thousand head of range horses have been sold to Oregon buyers by George Russell of Elko recently. The removal of this band will furnish feed for that many cattle on the range.

Gone to Their Mother.

Mrs. Robert Moore received three telegrams from Anaconda, Mont., yesterday concerning the condition of her mother, Mrs. J. Finlayson, who was stricken with paralysis on Sunday. The dispatches stated that the patient was resting easily, but the physician did not give much hope for her recovery. Mrs. Moore and her sister, Mrs. Frank Lewis, left for Anaconda on last night's train, and Mrs. Frank Lee will arrive here from San Francisco this morning and will proceed on eastward to see her mother.
